Provided that in making such addition the Government may direct that the provisions of this Act shall apply to such classes of person in respect of specified injuries only

(4) The Expressions used in this Act but not defined herein shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the relevant labour laws.

CHAPTER 2 WORKERS'S COMPENSATION

Employer's liability for compensation.

3. (1) If personal injury is caused to a worker by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, his employer shall be liable to pay compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter:

Provided that the employer shall not be liable-

(a) in respect of any injury which does not result in the total or partial disablement of the worker for a period exceeding four days;

(b) in respect of any injury, not resulting in death, caused by an accident which is directly attributable to-

(i) the worker having been at the time thereof under the influence of drink or drugs:

Provided he disregarded clear and express instruction of the employer,
or

(ii) the willful disobedience of the worker to an order expressly given, or to a rule expressly framed, for the purpose of securing the safety of worker, or

(iii) the willful removal or disregard by the worker of any Safety guard or other device which he knew to have been provided for the purpose of securing the safety of Workers.

(2) If a worker contracts any disease specified in Schedule-III as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment, or if a worker, whilst in the service of an employer in whose service he has been employed for a continuous period of not less than six months shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section and, unless the employer proves the contrary, the accident shall be deemed to have arisen out of and in the course of the employment.

Explanation- For the purpose of this sub-section a period of service shall be deemed to be continuous which has not included a period of service under any other employer in the same kind of employment.

(3) Government may, after giving, by notification in the official Gazette of not less than three months' notice of its intention so to do, add any description of occupational disease specified in Schedule-III, the diseases which shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be occupational diseases, and the provisions of sub-section (2) shall thereupon apply as if such diseases had been declared by this Act to be occupational diseases.

(4) Save as provided by sub-sections (2) and (3), no compensation shall be payable to a worker in respect of this section any occupational disease unless the disease is directly attributable to a specified injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(5) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any right to compensation on a worker in respect of any injury if he has instituted in Civil Court a suit for damages in respect of the injury against the employer or any other person.

(6) No suit for damages shall be maintained by a worker in any Court of law in respect of any injury-

(a) if he has instituted a claim to compensation in respect of the injury before a Commissioner; or

(b) if an agreement has been executed between the worker and his employer providing for the payment of compensation in respect of the injury in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Amount of Compensation.

4. Amount of compensation. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation shall be as follows, namely:

(a) where death results from the injury to a worker the amount shown in the first column of Schedule-IV thereof;

(b) where permanent total disablement results from the injury to a worker the amount shown in the second column of Schedule IV thereof;

(c) Where permanent partial disablement results from the injury-

(i) in the case of an injury specified in Schedule I, such percentage of the compensation which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is specified therein as being the percentage of the loss of earning capacity caused by that injury, and

(ii) in the case of an injury not specified in Schedule 1, such Percentage of the compensation payable in the case of Permanent total disablement as is proportionate to the loss of earning capacity permanently caused by the injury.

Explanation-Where more injuries than one are caused by the same accident, the amount of compensation payable under this head shall be aggregated but not so in any case as to exceed the amount which would have been payable if permanent total disablement had resulted from the injuries.

(d) Where temporary disablement, whether total or partial, results from the injury, a half-monthly payment payable on the sixteenth day after the expiry of waiting period of four days from the date of the disablement, and thereafter half- monthly during the disablement, or during a period of five years, whichever period is shorter- the amount shown in the third column of the Schedule IV.

Provided that-

(a) there shall be deducted from any lump-sum of half-monthly payments to which the worker is entitled the amount of any payment or allowance which the worker has received from the employer by way of compensation during the period of disablement prior to the receipt of such lump-sum or the first half-monthly payment as the case may be, except payment made to the worker during the period of his convalescent towards medical treatment and the half-monthly payments made for the first four months disablement;

(b) no half-monthly payment shall in any case exceed the amount if any, by which half the amount of the monthly wages of the worker before the accident exceeds half the amount of such wages which he is earning after the accident; and

(c) the amount of half-monthly payments to which a worker is entitled shall in no case be less than the amount of half-monthly payments to which a worker drawing lesser monthly wages than such worker is entitled.

(2) On the ceasing of the disablement before the date on which any half-monthly payment falls due, there shall be payable in respect of that half-month a sum proportionate to the duration of the disablement in that half-month.

(3) The Government after tripartite consultation, by notification in the official Gazette, may revise the amount of compensation specified in Schedule IV.

Method of calculating wages.

5. In this Act and for the purposes thereof the expression 'monthly wages' means the amount of wages deemed to be payable for a month's service whether the wages are payable by the month or by whatever other period or at piece rates, and calculated as follows, namely: -

(a) where the worker has, during a continuous period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the accident, been in the service of the employer who is liable to pay compensation, the monthly wages of the worker shall be one-twelfth of the total wages which have fallen due for payment to him by the employer in the last twelve months of that period;

(b) where the whole of the continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident during which the worker was in the service of the employer who is liable to pay the compensation was less than one month, the monthly wages of the worker shall be the average monthly amount which during the twelve months immediately preceding the accident, was being earned by a worker employed on the same work by the same employer, or, if there was no worker so employed, by a worker employed on similar work in the same locality;

(c) In other cases, the monthly wages shall be thirty times the total wages earned in respect of the last continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident from the employer who is liable to pay compensation, divided by the number of days comprising such period.

Explanation-A period of service shall, for the purposes of this section be deemed to be continuous which has not been interrupted by a period of absence from work exceeding fourteen days.

Review.

6. (1) Any half-monthly payment payable under this Act. either under an agreement between the parties or under the order of a Commissioner, may be reviewed by the commissioner, on the application either of the employer or of the worker accompanied by the certificate of a qualified medical practitioner that there has been a change in the condition of the worker or, subject to rules made under this Act, on application made without such certificate.

(2) Any half monthly payment may, on review under this section subject to the provisions of this Act, be continued, increased, decreased, or ended, or if the accident is found to have resulted in permanent disablement be converted to the lump sum to which the worker is entitled less any amount which he has already received by way of half-monthly Payments.

Commutation of half-monthly payments.

7. Any right to receive half-monthly payments may, by agreement between the parties or, if the, parties cannot agree and the payments have been continued for not less than six months, on the application of either party to the Commissioner be redeemed by the payment of a lump-sum of such amount as may be agreed to by the parties or determined by the Commissioner, as the case may be.

Distribution of Compensation.

8. (1) No payment of compensation in respect of a worker whose injury has resulted in death, and no payment of lump sum as compensation to a worker or a person under legal disability, shall be made otherwise than by deposit with the Commissioner, and no such payment made directly by an employer shall be deemed to be a payment of compensation:

Provided that in case of a deceased worker, an employer may make to any dependent advances on account of compensation not exceeding an aggregate of fifty thousand rupees, and so much of such aggregate as does not exceed the compensation payable to that dependent shall be deducted by the Commissioner from such compensation and repaid to the employer,

(2) Any other sum amounting to not less than twenty thousand rupees which is payable as compensation may be deposited with the Commissioner on behalf of the person entitled thereto.

(3) The receipt of the Commissioner shall be a sufficient discharge in respect of any compensation deposited with him.

(4) On the deposit of any money under sub-section (1) as compensation in respect of a deceased worker the Commissioner shall deduct there from the actual cost of the worker's funeral expenses to an amount not exceeding 10 percent of the total amount of compensation in a prescribed manner and pay the same to the person by whom such expenses were incurred, and shall, if he thinks necessary, cause notice to be published or to be served on each dependent in such manner as he thinks fit, calling upon the dependents to appear before him on such date as he may fix for determining the distribution of the compensation, If the Commissioner is satisfied after any inquiry which he may deem necessary, that no dependent exists he shall not less than two years after the date of deposit, transfer the balance of the money to such fund or funds for the benefit of workers as the Government may by notification in the official Gazette specify or establish. The Commissioner shall, on application by the employer, furnish a statement showing in detail all disbursements made.

(5) Compensation deposited in respect of a deceased worker shall, subject to any deduction made under the proviso to sub-section (1) or under sub-section (4), be apportioned among the dependents of the deceased worker or any of them in such proportion as the Commissioner thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the Commissioner, be allotted to any one dependent.

(6) Where any compensation deposited with the Commissioner is payable to any person, the Commissioner shall pay it to legally entitled heirs in a prescribed manner.

(7) Where any lump-sum deposited with the Commissioner is payable to a woman or a person under a legal disability, such sum may be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with for the benefit of the woman, or of such person during his disability, in such manner the Commissioner may direct; and where a half-monthly payment is payable to any person under legal disability, the Commissioner may, of his own motion or on an application made to him in this behalf, order that the payment be made during the disability to any dependent of the worker or to any other person whom the Commissioner thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the worker.

(8) Where, on application made to him in this behalf or otherwise, the Commissioner is satisfied that on account of neglect of children on the part of a parent or on account of the variation of the circumstances of any dependent or for any other sufficient cause, an order of the Commissioner as to the distribution of any sum paid as compensation or as to the manner in which any sum payable to any such dependent is to be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with, ought to be varied, the Commissioner may make such orders for the variation of the former order as he thinks just in the circumstances of the case.

Provided that no such order prejudicial to any person shall be made unless such person has been given an opportunity of showing cause why the order should not be made or shall be made in any case in which it would involve the repayment by a department of any sum already paid to him.

(9) Where the Commissioner varies any order under sub-section (8) by reason of the fact that payment of compensation to any person has been obtained by fraud, impersonation or other improper means, any amount so paid to or on behalf of such person may be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 38.

Compensation not to be assigned, attached or changed.

9. Save as provided by this Act, no lump-sum or half-monthly payment payable under this Act shall in any way be capable of being assigned or charged or be liable to attachment or pass to any person other than the worker by operation of law, nor shall any claim be set off against the same

Notice and claim.

10. (1) No claim for compensation shall be entertained by a Commissioner unless notice of the accident or injury has been given in the manner hereinafter provided as soon as practicable after the happening thereof and unless the claim is preferred before him within five years of the occurrence of the accident or, in case of death, within five years from the date of death:

Provided that, where the accident is the contracting of a disease in respect of which the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 3 are applicable the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the first of the days during which the worker was continuously absent from work in consequence of the disablement caused by the disease:

Provided further, that the want of or any defect or irregularity in a notice shall not be a bar to the entertainment of a claim:

- (a) If the claim is preferred in respect of the death of a worker resulting from an accident which occurred on the premises of the employer, or at any place where the worker at the time of the accident was working under the control of the employer or of any person employed by him, and the worker died on such premises or at such place, or on any premises belonging to the employer, or died without having left the vicinity of the premises or place where the accident occurred, or
- (b) If the employer or any one of several employers or any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured worker was employed had knowledge of the accident from any other source at or about the time when it occurred:

Provided further, that the Commissioner may entertain and decide any claim to compensation in any case notwithstanding that the notice has not been given, or the claim has not been preferred in due time as provided in this sub-section, if he is satisfied that the failure so to give the notice or prefer the claim, as the case may be, was due to sufficient cause.

(2) Every such notice shall give the name and address of the person injured and shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury and the date on which the accident happened, and shall be served on the employer or upon any one of several employers, or upon any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured worker was employed.

(3) The Government may require that the prescribed class of employers shall maintain at their premises at which workers are employed a notice-book, in the prescribed form, which shall be readily accessible at all reasonable times to any injured worker employed on the business and to any person acting bona fide on his behalf.

(4) A notice under this section may be served by delivering it at, or sending it by registered post addressed to, the residence or any office or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served or, where a notice-book is maintained, by entry in the notice-book.

Power to require from employers statements

11. (1) Where a Commissioner receives information from any source that a worker has died as a result of an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, he may send by registered post a notice to the worker's employer requiring him to regarding fatal accidents.

submit, within thirty days of service of the notice, a statement, in the prescribed form, giving the circumstances attending the death of the worker, and indicating whether, in the opinion of the employer, he is or is not liable to deposit compensation on account of the death.

(2) If the employer is of opinion that he is liable to deposit compensation, he shall make the deposit within ten days of the service of the notice.

(3) If the employer is of opinion that he is not liable to deposit compensation, he shall in his statement indicate the grounds, on which he disclaims liability.

(4) Where the employer has so disclaimed liability the Commissioner, after such inquiry as he may think fit, may inform any of the dependents of the deceased worker that it is open to the dependents to prefer a claim for compensation, and may give them such other further information as he may think fit.

Reports of fatal accidents.

12. (1) Where, by any law for the time being in force, notice is required to be given to any authority by or on behalf of an employer, of any accident occurring on his premises which results in death the person required to give the notice shall, within seven days of the death, send a report to the Commissioner giving the circumstances attending the death:

Provided that where the Government has so prescribed, the person required to give the notice may instead of sending such report to the Commissioner send it to the authority to whom he is required to give the notice.

(2) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, extend the provisions of sub-section (1) to any class of premises other than those coming within the scope of that sub-section, and may, by such notification, specify the persons who shall send the report to the Commissioner.

Officers authorized may prefer cases for payment of compensation.

13. The Director General, Labour Welfare, an Inspector of Factories or any other officer authorized by the Government for this purpose may refer, in the prescribed manner, to the Commissioner Workers Compensation, cases of workers who have not been paid due compensation by employers under the provisions of this Act.

Fixation of abstracts of the Act or rules at the entrance of the premises.

14. There shall be affixed in some conspicuous place near the main entrance of every place where workers are employed, in English and in the language of the majority of the workers, such abstracts of this Act and of the rules made thereunder as may be prescribed.

Medical examination.

15. (1) Where a worker has given notice of an accident, the employer shall, before the expiry of three days from the time at which service of the notice has been effected, have the worker examined free of charge by a qualified medical practitioner, and the worker shall submit himself for such examination, and any worker who is in receipt of a half-monthly payment under this Act, shall if so required, submit himself for such examination from time to time:

Provided that a worker not examined free of charge as aforesaid may get himself examined by a qualified medical practitioner and the expenses of such medical examination shall be reimbursed to the worker by the employer:

Provided further that a worker shall not be required to submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner otherwise than in accordance with rules made under this Act, or at more frequent intervals than may be prescribed.

(2) If a worker, on being required to do so by the employer under sub-section (1) or by the Commissioner at any time, refuses to submit himself for examination by a qualified medical practitioner or in any way obstructs the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended during the continuance of such refusal or obstruction unless, in the case of refusal, he was prevented by any sufficient cause from so submitting himself.

(3) If a worker, before the expiry of the period within which he is liable under sub-section (1) to be required to submit himself for medical examination voluntarily leaves without having been so examined the vicinity of the place in which he was employed, his right to compensation shall be suspended until he returns and offers himself for such examination.

(4) Where a worker, whose right to compensation has been suspended under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), dies without having submitted himself for medical examination as required by either of those sub-sections, the Commissioner shall direct the payment of compensation to the dependents of the deceased worker.

(5) Where under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) a right to compensation is suspended, no compensation shall be payable in respect of the period of suspension, and, if the period of suspension commences before the expiry of the waiting period referred to in clause D of sub-section (1) of Section 4, the waiting period shall be increased by the period during which the suspension continues.

(6) Where an injured worker has refused to be attended by a qualified medical practitioner whose services have been offered to him by the employer free of charge or having accepted such offer deliberately disregarded the instructions of such medical practitioner, then, if it is proved that the worker has not thereafter been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner or having been so attended has deliberately failed to follow his instructions and that such refusal, disregard or failure was unreasonable in the circumstances of the case and that the injury has been aggravated thereby, the injury and resulting disablement shall be deemed to be of the same nature and duration as they might reasonably have been expected to be if the worker had been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner whose instructions he had followed, and compensation, if any, shall be payable accordingly.

Contracting.

16. (1) Where any person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the principal) in the course of or for the purposes of his trade or business contracts with any other person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the contractor) for the execution by or under the contractor of the whole or any part of any work which is ordinarily part of the trade or business of the principal, the principal shall be liable to pay to any worker employed in the execution of the work any compensation which he would have been liable to pay if that worker had been immediately employed by him ; and where compensation is claimed from the principal, this Act shall apply as if references to the principal were substituted for references to the employer except that the amount of compensation shall be calculated with reference to the wages of the worker under the employer by whom he is immediately employed.

(2) Where the principal is liable to pay compensation under this section he shall be entitled to be indemnified by the contractor, or any other person from whom the worker could have recovered compensation and where a contractor who is himself a principal is liable to pay compensation or to indemnify a principal under this section he shall be entitled to be indemnified by any person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the worker could have recovered compensation and all questions as to the right to and the amount of any such indemnity shall, in default or agreement, be settled by the Commissioner.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a worker recovering compensation from the contractor instead of principal.

(4) This section shall not apply in any case where the accident occurred elsewhere than on, in or about the premises on which the principal has undertaken or usually undertakes, as the case may be, to execute the work or which are otherwise under his control or management.

Remedies of employer against stranger.

17. Where a worker has recovered compensation in respect of any injury caused under circumstances creating a legal liability of some person other than the person by whom the compensation was paid to pay damages in respect thereof, the person by whom the compensation was paid and any person who has been called on to pay an indemnity under Section 16 shall be entitled to be indemnified by the person so liable to pay damages as aforesaid.

Insolvency of employer.

18. (1) Where any employer has entered into a contract with any insurers in respect of any liability under this Act to any worker, then in the event of the employer becoming insolvent or making a composition or scheme of arrangement with his creditors or, if the employer is a company, in the event of the company having commenced to be wound up, the rights of the employer against the insurers as respect that liability shall, notwithstanding anything in any law for the-time being in force relating to insolvency or the winding up of companies, be transferred to and vest in the worker, and upon any such transfer the insurers shall have the same rights and remedies and be subject to the same liabilities as if they were the employer, so, however, that the insurers shall not be under any greater liability to the worker than they would have been under to the employer.

(2) If the liability of the injuries to the worker is less than the liability of the employer to the worker, the worker may prove for the balance in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation.

(3) Where in any cases such as is referred to in sub-section (1) the contract of the employer with the insurers is void or voidable by reason of non-compliance on the part of the employer with any terms or conditions of the contract (other than a stipulation for the payment of premia), the provision of that sub-section shall apply as if the contract were not void or voidable, and the insurers shall be entitled to prove in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation for the amount paid to the worker :

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in any case in which the worker fails to give notice to the insurers of the happening of the accident and of any resulting disablement as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of the insolvency or liquidation proceedings.

(4) There shall be deemed to be included among the debts which under Section 49 of the Insolvency, or under Section 61 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920), or under Section 230 of the Companies Act, 2017 (XIX of 2017), are in the distribution of the property of an insolvent or in the distribution of the assets of a company being wound up to be paid in priority to all other debts, the amount due in respect of any compensation the liability wherefore accrued before date of the order of adjudication of the insolvent or the date of the commencement of the winding up, as the case may be, and those Acts shall have effect accordingly.

(5) Where the compensation is a half-monthly payment, the amount due in respect thereof shall, for the purpose of this section, be taken, to be the amount of the lump-sum for which the half monthly payment could, if redeemable, be redeemed if applications were made for that purpose under Section 7, and a certificate of the Commissioner as to the amount of such sum shall be conclusive proof thereof.

(6) The provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply in the case of any amount for which an insurer is entitled to prove under sub-section (3), but otherwise those provisions shall not apply where the insolvent or the company being wound up has been entered into such a contract with insurers as is referred to in sub-section (1)

(7) This section shall not apply where a company is wound up voluntarily merely for the purpose of reconstruction or of amalgamation with another company

Special provisions relating to masters and seamen.

19. This Act shall apply in the case of workers who are masters of ships or seamen subject to the following modifications, namely: -

(1) The notice of the accident and the claim for compensation may except where the person injured is the master of the ship, be served on the master of the ship as if he were the employer but where the accident happened and the disablement commenced on board the ship, it shall not be necessary for any seaman to give any notice of the accident.

(2) In the case of the death of a master or seaman, the claim for compensation shall be made within six months after the news of the death has been received by the claimant or, where the ship has been or is deemed to have been lost with all hands, within eighteen months of the date on which the ship was, or is deemed to have been, so lost.

(3) When an injured master or seaman is discharged or left behind in a foreign country any depositions taken by any Consular Officer in the foreign country and transmitted by the person by whom they are taken to the Federal Government or any

Provincial Government shall; in any proceedings for enforcing the claim, be admissible in evidence-

- (a) if the deposition is authenticated by the signature of the Consular officer before whom it is made;
- (b) if the defendant or the person accused, as the case may be, had an opportunity by himself or his agent to cross examine the witness; and
- (c) if the deposition was made in the course of a criminal proceeding, on proof that the deposition was made in the presence of the accused ;and it shall not be necessary in any case to prove the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such deposition and a certificate by such person that the defendant or the persons accused had an opportunity of cross-examining the witness and that deposition if made in a criminal proceeding was made in the presence of the person accused shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence that he had that opportunity and that it was so made.

(4) No half-monthly payment shall be payable in respect of the period during which the owner of the ship is, under any law in force for the time being in Pakistan relating to merchant shipping, liable to defray the expenses of the injured master or seaman.

(5) No compensation shall be payable under this Act in respect of any injury for which provision is made for payment of a gratuity, allowance or pension under the War Pensions and Detention Allowances (Mercantile Marine, etc.) Scheme, 1939 or any other scheme of similar nature in place by any of the provincial Government or Federal Government ensuring compensation and pension and allied benefits of persons engaged on ships.

(6) Failure to give a notice or make a claim or commence proceedings within the time required by this Act shall not be a bar to the maintenance of proceedings under this Act in respect of any personal injury if-

(a) an application has been made for payment in respect of the injury under any of the schemes referred to in the preceding clause, and

(b) the Government certifies that the said application was made in the reasonable belief that the injury was one in respect of which the scheme under which (he application was made, makes provision for payments, and that the application was rejected or that payments made in pursuance of the application were discontinued on the ground that the injury was not such an injury, and

(c) the proceedings under this Act are commenced within one month from the date on which the said certificate of the Government was furnished to the person commencing the proceedings.

Returns as to compensation.

20. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that every person employing workers, or that any specified class of such persons, shall send at such time and in such form and to such authority, as may be specified in the notification, a correct return specifying the number of injuries in respect of which compensation has been paid by the employer during the previous year and the amount of such compensation, together with such other particulars as to the compensation as the Government may direct.

Contracting out. 21. Any contract or agreement whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, whereby a worker relinquishes any right of compensation from the employer for personal injury arising out of or in the course of the employment, shall be null and void insofar as it purports to remove or reduce the liability of any person to pay compensation under this Act.

Proof of age. 22. Where any question arises as to the age of a person injured by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment in a work place, a valid certificate granted by a Medical Board in services hospitals or medical superintendent of a Civil Hospital, as the case may be, before the occurrence of the injury, shall be conclusive proof of the age of such person.

Explanation- Birth certificate issued by the organization or municipality responsible for registration of births under the law shall be a valid proof of the date of birth.

Penalties. 23. (1) Whoever-

- (a) fails to maintain a notice-book which he is required to maintain under sub-section (3) of Section 10, or
- (b) fails to send to the Commissioner a statement which he is required, to send under sub- section (1) of Section 11, or
- (c) fails to make a report which he is required to make under Section 12, or
- (d) fails to make a return which he is required to make under Section 16, or
- (e) fails to affix the abstracts of this Act or the rules as required by Section 14, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees but not less than twenty thousand rupees.

(2) No prosecution under this section shall be instituted except by or with the previous sanction of a Commissioner, and no Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this section, unless complaint thereof is made within six months of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

CHAPTER III COMMISSIONERS

Reference to Commissioners. 24. (1) If any question arises in any proceedings under this Act as to the liability of any person to pay compensation (including any question as to whether a person injured is or is not a worker) or as to the amount or duration of compensation

(including any question as to the nature or extent of disablement), the question shall, in default of agreement, be settled by a Commissioner.

(2) Notwithstanding the provision of sub-section no agreement for payment of compensation for injury resulting in disablement or death of the worker shall be made with the employer for an amount less than the amount specified in Schedule IV:

Provided that an agreement of any amount over and above the amount mentioned in the said Schedule shall be made by the injured worker in the event of his disablement and by the dependent in the case of injured worker's death:

Provide further that no court shall entertain and decide any application or petition for award of compensation if agreement for a higher amount has been arrived at with the disabled worker or with his immediate dependent in case of his (worker's) death.

(3) No Civil Court shall have jurisdiction to settle, decide or deal with any question which is by or under this Act required to be settled, decided or dealt with by a Commissioner or to enforce any liability incurred under this Act (1) If any question arises in any proceedings under this Act as to the liability of any person to pay compensation (including any question as to whether a person injured is or is not a worker) or as to the amount or duration of compensation (including any question as to the nature or extent of disablement), the question shall, in default of agreement, be settled by a Commissioner.

Appointment of Commissioners.

25. (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint any person to be a Commissioner for Workers' Compensation for such areas as may specified in the notification.

(2) Where more than one Commissioner has been appointed for any local area, the Government may, by general or special order regulate the distribution of business between them.

(3) Any Commissioner may, for the purpose of deciding any matter referred to him for decision under this Act, choose one or more persons possessing special knowledge of any matter relevant to the matter under inquiry to assist him in holding the inquiry.

(4) Every Commissioner shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

Venue of proceedings and transfer.

26. (1) Where any matter is under this Act to be done by or before a Commissioner, the same shall, subject to the provision of this Act and to any rules made hereunder, be done by or before a Commissioner for the local area in which the accident took place which resulted in the injury:

Provided that, where the worker is the master of a ship or a seaman, any such matter may be done by or before a Commissioner for the local area in which the owner or agent of the ship resides or carries on business.

(2) If a Commissioner is satisfied that any matter arising out of any proceedings pending before him can be more conveniently dealt with by any other Commissioner, whether in the same Regional office or not, he may subject to rules made under this Act, order such matter to be transferred to such other Commissioner either for report or for disposal, and, if he does so, shall forthwith transmit to such other Commissioner all documents relevant for the decision of such matter and, where the matter is transferred for disposal, shall also transmit in the prescribed manner any money remaining in his hands or invested by him for the benefit of any party to the proceedings:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not, where any party to the proceedings has appeared before him, make any order of transfer relating to the distribution among dependents of a lump-sum without giving such party an opportunity of being heard:

Provided further, that no matter other than a matter relating to the actual payment to a worker or the distribution among dependents of a lump sum shall be transferred for disposal under this sub-section to a Commissioner in the same Region save with the previous sanction of the Government or to a Commissioner in another Region save with the previous sanction of the Government, unless all the parties to the proceedings agree to the transfer.

(3) The Commissioner to whom any matter is or so transferred shall, subject to rules made under this Act, inquire there into and, if the matter was transferred for report, return his report thereon or, if the matter was transferred for disposal, continue the proceedings as if they had originally commenced before him.

(4) On receipt of a report from a Commissioner to whom any matter has been transferred for report under sub-section (2), the Commissioner by whom it was referred shall decide the matter referred in conformity with such report.

(5) The Government may transfer any matter from any Commissioner appointed by it to any other Commissioner appointed by it.

Form of application.

27. (1) No application for the settlement of any matter by a Commissioner, other than an application by a dependent or dependents for compensation, shall be made unless and until some question has arisen between the parties in connection therewith which they have been unable to settle by agreement.

(2) An application to a Commissioner may be made in such form and shall be accompanied by such fee, if any, as may be prescribed, and shall contain, in addition to any particulars which may be prescribed, the following particulars, namely:

- (a) a concise statement of the circumstances in which the application is made and the relief or order which the applicant claims;
- (b) in the case of a claim for compensation against an employer, the date of service of notice of the accident on the employer and, if such notice has not been served or has not been served in due time, the reason for such omission;
- (c) the names and addresses of the parties; and
- (d) except in the case of an application by dependents for compensation a concise statement of the matters on which agreement has and of those on which agreement has not been executed.

(3) If the applicant is illiterate or for any other reason is unable to furnish the required information in writing, the application shall, if the applicant so desires, be prepared under the direction of the Commissioner.

Power of Commissioner to require further deposit in cases of fatal accident.

28. (1) Where any sum has been deposited by an employer as compensation payable in respect of a worker whose injury has resulted in death, and in the opinion of the Commissioner such sum is insufficient, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing stating his reasons, call upon the employer to show cause why he should not make a further deposit within such time as may be stated in the notice.

(2) If the employer fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the Commissioner may make an award determining the total amount payable, and requiring the employer to deposit the deficient amount.

Powers and procedure of Commissioners.

29. The Commissioner shall have all the powers of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the purpose of taking evidence on oath (which such Commissioner is hereby empowered to impose) and of enforcing the attendance of witnesses and compelling the production of documents and material objects, and the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for all the purposes of Section 195 and of Chapter XXXV of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

Appearance of parties.

30. Any appearance, application or act required to be made or done by any person before or to a Commissioner (other than an appearance of a party which is required for the purpose of his examination as a witness) may be made or done on behalf of such person by a legal practitioner or by an official of an Insurance Company or registered Trade Union authorized in writing by such person, or, with the permission of the Commissioner by any other person so authorized.

Method of recording evidence.

31. The Commissioner shall make a brief memorandum of the substance of the evidence of every witness as the examination of the witness proceeds, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Commissioner with his own hand and shall form part of the record:

Provided, that if the Commissioner is prevented from making such memorandum, he shall record the reason of his inability to do so and shall cause such memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation and shall sign the same, and such memorandum shall form part of the record:

Provided further that the evidence of any medical witness shall be taken down as nearly as may be word for word.

Costs.

32. All costs, incidental to any proceedings before a Commissioner shall, subject to rules made under this Act, be in the discretion of the Commissioner.

Power to submit cases.

33. A Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, submit any question of law for the decision of the Tribunal and, if he does so, shall decide the question in conformity with such decision.

Registration of agreements.

34. (1) Where the amount of any lump-sum payable as compensation has been settled by agreement, whether by way of redemption of a half-monthly payment or otherwise, or where any compensation has been so settled as being payable to a woman or a person under a legal disability a memorandum thereof shall be sent by the employer to the Commissioner, who shall on being satisfied as to its genuineness, record the memorandum in a register in the prescribed manner:

Provided that-

- (a) no such memorandum shall be recorded before seven days after communication by the Commissioner of notice to the parties concerned;
- (b) the Commissioner may at any time rectify the register;
- (c) where it appears to the Commissioner that an agreement as to the payment of a lump-sum whether by way of redemption of a half-monthly payment or an agreement as to the amount of compensation payable to a woman or a person under a legal disability ought not to be registered by reason of the inadequacy of the sum or amount, or by reason of the agreement having been obtained by fraud or undue influence or other improper means, he may refuse to record the memorandum of the agreement and may make such order including an order as to any sum already paid under the agreement, as he thinks just in the circumstances.

(2) An agreement for the payment of compensation which has been registered under sub-section (1) shall be enforceable under this Act notwithstanding anything contained in the Contract Act, 1872 [IX of 1872], or in any other law for the time being in force

Effect of failure to register agreement.

35. Where a memorandum of any agreement, the registration of which is required by Section 34, is not sent to the Commissioner as required by that section, the employer shall be liable to pay the full amount of the compensation which he is liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 4, shall not, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, be entitled to deduct more than half of any amount paid to the worker by way of compensation whether under the agreement or otherwise.

Appeals.

36. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Tribunal for the following orders of a Commissioner, namely: -

- (a) an order awarding as compensation a lump-sum whether by way of redemption of a half-monthly payment or otherwise or disallowing a claim in full or in part for a lump-sum;
- (b) an order refusing to allow redemption of a half-monthly payment;
- (c) an order providing for the distribution of compensation among the dependants of a deceased worker, or disallowing any claim of a person alleging himself to be such dependent;
- (d) an order allowing or disallowing any claim for the amount of an indemnity under the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 16 ;
or
- (e) an order refusing to register a memorandum of agreement or registering the same or providing for the registration of the same subject to conditions:

Provided that no appeal shall lie against any order unless a substantial question of law is involved in the appeal and, in the case of an order other than an order such as is referred to in clause (b), unless the amount in dispute in the appeal is not less than thirty thousand rupees:

Provided further, that no appeal shall lie in any case in which the parties have agreed to abide by the decision of the Commissioner, or in which the order of the Commissioner gives effect to an agreement come to by the parties:

Provided further, that no appeal by an employer under clause (a) shall lie unless the memorandum of appeal is accompanied by a certificate by the Commissioner to the effect that the appellant has deposited with him the amount payable under the order appealed against.

(2) The period of limitation for an appeal under this section shall be sixty days.

(3) The Provision of Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), shall be applicable to appeals under this section.

Withholding of certain payments pending decision of appeal.

37. Where an employer makes an appeal under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 36, the Commissioner may, and if so directed by the Tribunal shall pending the decision of the appeal, withhold payment of any sum in deposit with him.

Recovery.

38. (1) The Commissioner may recover as an arrear of land revenue any amount payable by any person under this Act, whether under an agreement for the payment of compensation or otherwise, and the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a public officer within the meaning of Section 5 of the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890 (I of 1890).

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Commissioner may recover in the prescribed manner any amount referred to therein by distress and sale of the movable property belonging to the person by whom the amount is payable, or by attachment and sale of the immovable property belonging to such person.

CHAPTER IV RULES

Powers of the Provincial Government to make rules.

39. (1) The Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.
(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters namely: -

- (a) for prescribing the intervals at which and the conditions subject to which an application for review may be made under Section 6 when not accompanied by a medical certificate;
- (b) for prescribing the intervals at which and the conditions subject to which a worker may be required to submit himself for medical examination under sub-section (1) of Section 15;
- (c) for prescribing the procedure to be followed by Commissioners in the disposal of cases under this Act and by the parties in such cases;
- (d) for regulating the transfer of matters and cases from one Commissioner to another and the transfer of money in such cases;
- (e) for prescribing the manner in which money in the hands of a Commissioner may be invested for the benefit of dependents of deceased worker, and for transfer of money so invested from one Commissioner to another;
- (f) for prescribing the manner in which any balance of money may under sub-section (4) of Section 8 be transferred to a fund or funds for the benefit of workers and for the establishment and administration of such fund or funds;

- (g) for the representation in proceedings before Commissioners of parties who are minors or are unable to make an appearance;
- (h) for prescribing the form and manner in which memoranda of agreement shall be presented and registered;
- (i) for the withholding by Commissioners whether in whole or in part of half-monthly payment pending decision on application for review of the same;
- (j) for regulating the scales of costs which may be allowed in proceedings under this Act;
- (k) for prescribing and determining the amount of the fees payable in respect of any proceedings before a Commissioner under this Act;
- (l) for the maintenance by Commissioners of registers and records of proceedings before them;
- (m) for prescribing the classes of employers who shall maintain notice-books under sub-section (3) of Section 10, and form of such notice-books;
- (n) for prescribing the form of statement to be submitted by employers under Section 11;
- (o) for prescribing the cases in which the report referred into Section 12 may be sent to any authority other than the Commissioner, and
- (p) for prescribing the abstract of this Act and of the rules required by Section 14.

Publication of Rules

40. (1) The power to make rules conferred by Section 39 shall be subject to the conditions of the rules being made after previous publication.

(2) The date to be specified in accordance with subsection (3) of Section 33 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897) as that after which a draft of rules proposed to be made under Section 39 will be taken into consideration, shall not be less than three months from the date on which the draft of the proposed rules was published for general information.

(3) Rules so made shall be published in the official Gazette and, on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

Rules to give effect to arrangement with other countries for the transfer of money paid as compensation.

41. (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for the transfer to any other country of money deposited with a Commissioner under this Act which has been awarded to or may be due to any person residing or about to reside in such country and for the receipt, distribution and administration in Pakistan or any money deposited under the law relating to workers' compensation in any other country, which has been awarded to, or may be due to any person residing or about to reside in Pakistan:

Provided that no sum deposited under this Act in respect of fatal accidents shall be so transferred without the consent of the employer concerned until the Commissioner receiving the sum has passed orders determining distribution and apportionment under provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of Section 8.

(2) Where money deposited with a Commissioner has been so transferred in accordance with the rules made under this section, the provision elsewhere contained in this Act regarding distribution by the Commissioner of compensation deposited with him shall cease to apply in respect of any such money.

Protection against discrimination.

42. No discrimination shall be made on the basis of sex, religion, gender, caste, ethnic background, race, colour, creed, sect, age, language, marital status, pregnancy and maternity, disability, trade union membership, political opinion, residence, place of birth, ancestry or foreign origin in considering and disposing of issues relating to the enforcement of this Act.

Removal of difficulties.

43. If any difficulty arises, in giving effect to any provisions of this Act, Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty

Repeal and Saving

44. The Workman Compensation Act 1923 (Act No VIII of 1923) in its application to the Province of Balochistan, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the aforesaid repeal, anything done, action taken, rule made, and notification or order issued under the said Act, shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done; taken, made or issued, under this Act, and shall have effect accordingly.

Explanation -In this Schedule 'the preceding twelve months' relates in any particular case to the twelve months ending with the day on which the accident in such case occurred

SCHEDULE-III (See section 3(2))

Occupational diseases caused by exposure to agents arising from work Activities

1.1. Diseases caused by chemical agents

1.1.1. Diseases caused by beryllium or its compounds

1.1.2. Diseases caused by cadmium or its compounds

1.1.3. Diseases caused by phosphorus or its compounds

1.1.4. Diseases caused by chromium or its compounds

1.1.5. Diseases caused by manganese or its compounds

1.1.6. Diseases caused by arsenic or its compounds

1.1.7. Diseases caused by mercury or its compounds

1.1.8. Diseases caused by lead or its compounds

1.1.9. Diseases caused by fluorine or its compounds

1.1.10. Diseases caused by carbon disulfide

1.1.11. Diseases caused by halogen derivatives of aliphatic or aromatic hydrocarbons

1.1.12. Diseases caused by benzene or its homologues

1.1.13. Diseases caused by nitro- and amino-derivatives of benzene or its homologues

- 1.1.14. Diseases caused by nitroglycerine or other nitric acid esters
- 1.1.15. Diseases caused by alcohols, glycols or ketones
- 1.1.16. Diseases caused by asphyxiates like carbon monoxide, hydrogen sulfide, hydrogen cyanide or its derivatives
- 1.1.17. Diseases caused by acrylonitrile
- 1.1.18. Diseases caused by oxides of nitrogen
- 1.1.19. Diseases caused by vanadium or its compounds
- 1.1.20. Diseases caused by antimony or its compounds
- 1.1.21. Diseases caused by hexane
- 1.1.22. Diseases caused by mineral acids
- 1.1.23. Diseases caused by pharmaceutical agents
- 1.1.24. Diseases caused by nickel or its compounds
- 1.1.25. Diseases caused by thallium or its compounds
- 1.1.26. Diseases caused by osmium or its compounds
- 1.1.27. Diseases caused by selenium or its compounds
- 1.1.28. Diseases caused by copper or its compounds
- 1.1.29. Diseases caused by platinum or its compounds
- 1.1.30. Diseases caused by tin or its compounds
- 1.1.31. Diseases caused by zinc or its compounds
- 1.1.32. Diseases caused by phosgene
- 1.1.33. Diseases caused by corneal irritants like benzoquinone
- 1.1.34. Diseases caused by ammonia
- 1.1.35. Diseases caused by isocyanates
- 1.1.36. Diseases caused by pesticides
- 1.1.37. Diseases caused by sulphur oxides
- 1.1.38. Diseases caused by organic solvents
- 1.1.39. Diseases caused by latex or latex-containing products
- 1.1.40. Diseases caused by chlorine
- 1.1.41. Diseases caused by other chemical agents at work not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically.

1.2 Diseases caused by physical agents

- 1.2.1. Hearing impairment caused by noise
- 1.2.2. Diseases caused by vibration (disorders of muscles, tendons, bones, joints, peripheral blood vessels or peripheral nerves)
- 1.2.3. Diseases caused by compressed or decompressed air
- 1.2.4. Diseases caused by ionizing radiations
- 1.2.5. Diseases caused by optical (ultraviolet, visible light, infrared) radiations including laser
- 1.2.6. Diseases caused by exposure to extreme temperatures
- 1.2.7. Diseases caused by other physical agents at work not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically, or determined by methods appropriate to national conditions and practice, between the exposure to these physical agents arising from work activities and the disease(s) contracted by the worker

1.3. Biological agents and infectious or parasitic diseases

- 1.3.1. Brucellosis
- 1.3.2. Hepatitis viruses
- 1.3.3. Tetanus
- 1.3.4. Tuberculosis
- 1.3.5. Toxic or inflammatory syndromes associated with bacterial or fungal contaminants
- 1.3.6. Anthrax
- 1.3.8. Diseases caused by other biological agents at work not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically between the exposure to these biological agents arising from work activities and the disease(s) contracted by the worker.

2. Occupational diseases by target organ systems

2.1. Respiratory diseases

- 2.1.1. Pneumoconioses caused by fibrogenic mineral dust (silicosis, anthraco-silicosis, asbestosis)
- 2.1.2. Silicotuberculosis
- 2.1.3. Pneumoconioses caused by non-fibrogenic mineral dust
- 2.1.4. Siderosis
- 2.1.5. Bronchopulmonary diseases caused by hard-metal dust
- 2.1.6. Bronchopulmonary diseases caused by dust of cotton (byssinosis), flax, hemp, sisal or sugar cane (bagassosis)
- 2.1.7. Asthma caused by recognized sensitizing agents or irritants inherent to the work process
- 2.1.8. Extrinsic allergic alveolitis caused by the inhalation of organic dusts or microbially contaminated aerosols, arising from work activities
- 2.1.9. Chronic obstructive pulmonary diseases caused by inhalation of coal dust, dust from stone quarries, wood dust, dust from cereals and agricultural work, dust in animal stables, dust from textiles, and paper dust, arising from work activities
- 2.1.10. Diseases of the lung caused by aluminium
- 2.1.11. Upper airways disorders caused by recognized sensitizing agents or irritants inherent to the work process.
- 2.1.12. Other respiratory diseases not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically, or determined between the exposure to risk factors arising from work activities and the disease(s) contracted by the worker

2.2. Skin diseases

- 2.2.1. Allergic contact dermatoses and contact urticaria caused by other recognized allergy-provoking agents arising from work activities not included in other items
- 2.2.2. Irritant contact dermatoses caused by other recognized irritant agents arising from work activities not included in other items
- 2.2.3. Vitiligo caused by other recognized agents arising from work activities not included in other items
- 2.2.4. Other skin diseases caused by physical, chemical or biological agents at work not included under other items where a direct link is established scientifically, or determined by methods appropriate to national conditions and practice, between the exposure to risk factors arising from work activities and the skin disease(s) contracted by the worker

2.3. Musculoskeletal disorders

- 2.3.1. Radial styloid tenosynovitis due to repetitive movements, forceful exertions and extreme postures of the wrist
- 2.3.2. Chronic tenosynovitis of hand and wrist due to repetitive movements, forceful exertions and extreme postures of the wrist
- 2.3.3. Olecranon bursitis due to prolonged pressure of the elbow region
- 2.3.4. Prepatellar bursitis due to prolonged stay in kneeling position
- 2.3.5. Epicondylitis due to repetitive forceful work
- 2.3.6. Meniscus lesions following extended periods of work in a kneeling or squatting position
- 2.3.7. Carpal tunnel syndrome due to extended periods of repetitive forceful work, work involving vibration, extreme postures of the wrist, or a combination of the three
- 2.3.8. Other musculoskeletal disorders not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically, or determined by methods appropriate to national conditions and practice, between the exposure to risk factors arising from work activities and the musculoskeletal disorder(s) contracted by the worker

2.4. Mental and behavioural disorders

- 2.4.1. Post-traumatic stress disorder
- 2.4.2. Other mental or behavioural disorders not mentioned in the preceding item where a direct link is established scientifically between the exposure to risk factors arising from work activities and the mental and behavioural disorder(s) contracted by the worker

3. Occupational cancer

3.1. Cancer caused by the following agents

- 3.1.1. Asbestos
- 3.1.2. Benzidine and its salts
- 3.1.3. Bis-chloromethyl ether (BCME)
- 3.1.4. Chromium VI compounds
- 3.1.5. Coal tars, coal tar pitches or soots
- 3.1.6. Beta-naphthylamine
- 3.1.7. Vinyl chloride
- 3.1.8. Benzene
- 3.1.9. Toxic nitro- and amino-derivatives of benzene or its homologues
- 3.1.10. Ionizing radiations
- 3.1.11. Tar, pitch, bitumen, mineral oil, anthracene, or the compounds, products or residues of these substances
- 3.1.12. Coke oven emissions
- 3.1.13. Nickel compounds
- 3.1.14. Wood dust
- 3.1.15. Arsenic and its compounds
- 3.1.16. Beryllium and its compounds
- 3.1.17. Cadmium and its compounds
- 3.1.18. Erionite
- 3.1.19. Ethylene oxide
- 3.1.20. Hepatitis B virus (HBV) and hepatitis C virus (HCV)
- 3.1.21. Cancers caused by other agents at work not mentioned in the preceding items where a direct link is established scientifically, or determined by methods appropriate to national conditions and practice, between the exposure to these agents arising from work activities and the cancer(s) contracted by the worker

4. Other diseases

- 4.1. Miners' nystagmus
- 4.2. Other specific diseases caused by occupations or processes not mentioned in this list where a direct link is established scientifically, between the exposure arising from work activities and the disease(s) contracted by the worker.

SCHEDULE IV
(See Section 4)
Compensation payable in certain cases

Amount of Compensation for		Payment as compensation for temporary disablement (3)
Death (1)	Permanent total disablement (2)
Rs.	Rs.	½ of the monthly wages during the period of disablement or a period of one year, reckoned from the date of injury, whichever is less and thereafter only in cases of chronic lung diseases 1/3 of the monthly wages during the period of disablement or for a period of 5 years, reckoned from the date of injury, whichever is less: “Provided that if the worker is paid this benefit under Provincial Social Security Ordinance or any other law, the employer shall not be required to pay the same under this Act.”
