STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Currently, there is no law in place in Balochistan to protect home-based workers. After the 18th Amendment in the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, the Provincial Government is mandated to promulgate its own laws on the subject of labour. The proposed law deals with registration of home-based workers and their employers, survey of workplaces to ensure compliance of basic labour rights including child labour, forced labour, discrimination, violence and harassment, health and safety and dispute resolution. The bill also provides institutional mechanism for extension of existing social protection schemes for the benefit of the Home-based Workers and their dependents. Hence this Bill.
